President's Report & In Memoriam

Hello, fellow Dutchies.

It has been a few months since my last President's report. During the July and August months, the Committee worked on plans, to make sure that you continue to enjoy being a Club Member. With the Sponsorship Programme well underway, it is safe to say, that by now, most of our Members have benefited from and partaken in Sponsored Events.

Earlier this year the Clubhouse at Cambridge Street was sold and settled and as a consequence the Committee was able to treat the Members with a variety of Sponsored Events. Although the Committee will continue to organise Sponsored Events for our Membership, we have now started to focus on a more financial sustainable future for the Club; an investment strategy, that will ensure a continued presence of the Dutch Club in Perth for many years to come.

With all the recent Events and a busy social calendar, I realized the need to have a "Neerlandia Event Co-ordinator". I am happy to say that Henk Oorschot volunteered for this position and I gratefully accepted. Further on in the magazine (page 11) you can see that Henk has already started with the organisation of a great Event in November.

Looking at the upcoming 2017 AGM, I would like to invite all Members (incl. children) to come along and to get involved in the update on the running of the Club. To enable Neerlandia Members with young families to attend the AGM, we have slightly changed the format. We will organize for the kids to be entertained during our AGM and although we will do our best to keep the meeting short and sweet, we ask for your understanding if proceedings are a 'little' disrupted from time to time by our youngest Members.

We hope to see many of you attending the Annual General Meeting at 3pm on 17 September 2017.

Meeting between Neerlandia, RDC & RDC Catering Chef:

Over the last few months minor issues regarding the Club's Meals had surfaced. Consequently, in the middle of July, a meeting was organised between RDC Committee Members, RDC's Chef Trevor, Representatives of the Wednesday Card Club, Neerlandia Seniors Club and Neerlandia Committee Members.

Following this constructive meeting it was agreed that communication between Trevor and Club Representatives would be intensified; the Representatives will also provide Trevor with feedback on a regular basis. During the meeting, all participants came up with workable suggestions, assuring enjoyment and quality of products for now and in the future. We trust that these agreements will work towards a better mutual understanding.

Eric van Waaijenburg, President.

Kale and Leek Oven Dish.

Recipe for a delicious Kale and Leek Oven dish.

Leek is now available in most supermarkets and greengrocers.

Kale is one of the healthiest and most nutritious plant foods in existence, something the Dutch knew for centuries. This recipe is a modern take on the traditional Potato and Kale recipe, “Stampot Boerenkool”.

Ingredients:

500 gr potatoes, peeled.
1 leek cut into thin rings.
500 gr kale, finely cut.
300 gr lean beef mince.
100 gr bacon, cut into small strips.
200 gr tasty cheese or parmesan, grated.
1 dessertspoon tomato puree.
150 ml beef stock, or water with beef cube.
150 ml milk.
100 ml cream.
50 gr butter.
Salt and pepper to taste.

Preparation:

- Preheat the oven to 200° Celsius.
- Grease an oven proof dish with a little butter.

- Boil the potatoes.
- Simmer the leek in a little butter till soft, add the kale and stir-fry till the kale softens.
- Fry the bacon crisp, add the mince and fry on low heat for about 5 minutes.
- Add the tomato puree, stock, cream and the kale.
- Mix in the cooked kale/leek and half of the cheese. Season to taste with pepper and salt.
- If the mixture is too dry add a little water.
- Mash the potatoes with the milk, season with pepper and salt.
- Put the kale mixture in the oven proof dish. Cover with the remainder of the cheese.
- Put in the middle of the oven for 30 minutes. If necessary put under the grill for a nice golden-brown crust.

The Hollandia Billiard Club.

In the last magazine we reported that Neerlandia had contributed financially to the complete renovation of one of the Snooker tables. The following article was published in the August/September issue of the Rhein-Donau Club Magazine.

“Thanks to a joint contribution from the Dutch Group and our Group, we have invested in repairs on one of our tables. This was completed a few weeks ago. It’s like we have a brand new table—new cloth, cushions, rubbers and nets. All Members are very happy with it. We intend to repair the other table within the next 12 months.”

To the Neerlandia Committee, thank you!
Pieter Leeftang.

The Dutch Club Neerlandia,
the Neerlandia Seniors Club and the Thursday Night Card Club wish you a

The Dutch Singers.

Report Maas & Waal Borrel Night:

The July Maas & Waal Borrel was again well attended by our Members and our Dutch friends alike. RDC's Robert once again played Board Games with the Children that came along.

Every M&WB, when the kids come in, they always start looking straight away for Robert, to make sure he is in the Clubhouse for the Board Games. These games usually start at approximately 7 o'clock.

The next M&W Borrels will be held on Friday the 25th of August and the one after that on Friday the 22th of September, a week early because of the October Fest start. See you all there.

From this month onwards we will be changing the starting time of the Maas & Waal Borrel from 5.30 to 6.00 pm.

Editorial.

On page 8 you will come across a letter written by Lianna Parker, which will surprise many. But personally, I wholeheartedly agree with her timing and the reasons she gives for retiring. When Lianna took on the Presidency, Neerlandia was in trouble. The Clubhouse needed renovations; it was losing money; our older Members did not attend events and the younger Members wanted a different style of entertainment.

Lianna with her business background and her people/social skills, was just the person to deal with this generation difference and to solve the problems with the Clubhouse.

Under her leadership the Clubhouse was sold, new accommodation was found and the younger generation got their act together.

Lianna, who was tirelessly involved with all aspects of running the Club for all those years seemed invincible. But at what cost!!

Being so involved and available 24/7 takes its toll. Hobbies are put on hold, family members are neglected and close friends are ignored.

In other words, your past social life becomes just a blur and a memory.

The solution: Pick a suitable successor and then pull the pin while the going is good. Regain your private life and pick up where you left off before you took on the Presidency.

Lianna, congratulations on your achievements, you will be sadly missed. But stable foundations for a successful Dutch Club in Perth have been laid. Well done and enjoy your personal life once again.

Pieter Leeftang, your Editor.

Stuff Dutch People Like & Being Dutch

"Stuff Dutch People Like" is a column written by a non-Dutch correspondent living in the Netherlands. This amusing column observes the Dutch in their everyday life.

We hope that you enjoy reading "Stuff Dutch People Like" as much as we do.

Patriotic songs.

The Dutch (like any small country with a slight inferiority complex) love their patriotic, nation-affirming songs. In everyday life, however, Dutch people are not particularly overt in their patriotism – after all, the Calvinistic principle of “doe normaal” doesn’t allow for such open displays of emotion of country-pride. Dutch people, however, are allowed to practice their own form of patriotism in socially-approved preselected instances, these being either:

1. A national sporting event (World Cup).
2. Queen’s Day.

On both above-mentioned events, you will find the Dutch united in their orange dress and fervently celebrating the homeland.

Dutch pride.

Apart from these pre-defined instances of patriotism, the Dutch also have their emotion-filled vocal praises of the lowlands. Songs which highlight the country’s notable history, strengths and oddities (a bit like this blog, eh?). Every 5-10 years a song with such attributes will enter the Dutch air waves and unite the Dutch in a way that only words-set-to-music can.

The one and only: André Hazes.

And here is my all-time favourite Dutch patriotic song (with subtitles):

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KDNdK7Cb0J0>

"Being Dutch" is a column written by Antoinetta. This Dutch lady currently lives with her English husband in Canada and explains to foreigners what it is to "Being Dutch". We hope that you enjoy her columns as much as we do.

The Kingdom of the Netherlands.

King Willem-Alexander of the Netherlands holds a traditional drink called “Rincon Punch” during “Dia di Rincon” celebrations in Rincon, Bonaire, April 30, 2015.

Although the Netherlands is the largest and wealthiest part, the Kingdom of the Netherlands is actually comprised of four constituent countries – all of which have equal status.

Along with the Netherlands itself, the members are Aruba, Curaçao and Sint Maarten, each of which has King Willem-Alexander as its head of state and its own parliament.

Three further Caribbean islands, Bonaire, Sint Eustatius and Saba, are administered as municipalities of the Netherlands and as such, inhabitants are Dutch citizens with the same rights and responsibilities. Until 2010, all the Caribbean islands, with the exception of Aruba, were part of the Dutch Antilles – an entity that was dissolved and its residents given the choice of independence or integration.

Dear Neerlandia Members.

Recently I returned home from a three months break.

This time away from Perth gave me an opportunity to reflect on my life and my position within the Neerlandia Community.

New opportunities and new challenges have crossed my path at the same time that Neerlandia is flourishing, new Committee Members are exciting additions to a well working and well-oiled new generation Dutch Club in Perth.

Neerlandia under Eric van Waaijenburg's leadership with his current team have most recently taken a major step in a new direction whereby a lot of attention is given to juniors, all is going well.

I can look back at many interesting years and I can sincerely say that I am so happy with the current Dutch Club - its members should call themselves lucky with a young President and a diverse Committee that continues to shape the Club.

My work for and with Neerlandia is done and now the time has come for me to focus with passion on other challenges; at the 2017 AGM I will be retiring from the Committee.

Although my decision was unexpected for everyone, including myself, I feel very relaxed about this decision; new challenges are around the corner and I am looking forward to putting my teeth into something totally new and totally different; I am so looking forward to share my life with my husband again.

It's been an interesting ride, to which I look back with fond memories; I thank you all for your friendship.

Please continue to support your Committee, please continue to be a part of the Neerlandia Community - there are many good years ahead for our Club.

Hartelijke groeten, Lianna Parker.

President	(two year term).
Vice President	(one year term).
Treasurer	(two year term).
3 Committee Members	(two year term).
1 Committee Members	(one year term).

Ice Skating with the The Neerlandia Juniors' Club

Family Ice Skating Day.

On Sunday 13 August, the Neerlandia Juniors' Club organised an Ice Skating Event from 4-6pm at the Cockburn Ice Arena. Nearly 50 people attended and the ages of the participants ranged from 6 months – 60 years old.

Lots of people were wearing orange "Unox" beanies.

The entrance fee was $15 per person and Neerlandia sponsored this event by providing its Members with "snert", a Dutch sausage and pea soup.

The soup was prepared by the Dutch Butcher in Welshpool, which Cockburn Ice Arena agreed for us to bring along. The kitchen staff, headed by a Dutch speaking Chef, reheated the traditional delicacy for us.

According to the many positive comments and responses the organisers received on the FaceBook page "Dutchies in Perth", everyone had a great time. Neerlandia's Juniors' Club is looking forward to organise this event again.

Formally Known as Dutch Aged Care. (DACWA)

10 Safety Tips for Seniors Living Alone.

- 1. Get to know your neighbours: While you may not be best friends, you should get to know your neighbours. Your neighbours are the most likely to notice, when something is wrong. Include neighbours on your "One Call Alert" system's emergency contact list.
- 2. Pay attention to and remove tripping hazards: Stray electrical cords, rugs that don't lie flat, low furniture, and poor lighting are common causes of falls within the home. Make sure your bulbs are the proper wattage and install nightlights to illuminate your floors at night.
- 3. Use a medical alert system: Medical alert systems such as "One Call Alert" provide very affordable access to emergency personnel at the push of a button. When you need help, just press a button on the medical alert bracelet or necklace and you'll be connected with a "One Call Alert" Emergency Operator, who is a trained emergency care specialist. Often, during an emergency, finding a phone and dialling a number, simply isn't an option.
- 4. Avoid slippery conditions: This one may seem obvious, but it is often overlooked. Take care to make sure floors aren't slippery. Use non-slip floor mats in your bathrooms and install safety bars (sometimes known as 'grab bars') in bath tubs and showers and next to toilets.
- 5. Test smoke alarms weekly: You know to install smoke alarms, but your alarms only protect you if they have fresh batteries and are operating properly. Even if they aren't dead, change batteries every six months".
- 6. The daily check-in: Ask a loved-one, neighbour (see, we told you it would pay off to get to know them), or friend to call each day just to make sure everything is okay. Offer to do the same for them. Spend a minute or two on the phone just for the conversation. This is also a great way to remind yourself to take any medications you might be on.
- 7. Don't place items in hard to reach places: Climbing to get to items in high places is another common cause of falls and should be avoided whenever possible. Keep the things you need within easy reach or at least get a very sturdy step stool.
- 8. Put a lock box on your door: A lock box allows family members, friends, trusted neighbours and emergency personnel to access your home, when you're unable to get to the door. If your neighbourhood has a significant number of foreclosures (in recent years, many do), you may want to go the route of a hidden key instead of a lock box. Make sure "One Call Alert" is aware of the hidden key location for use by paramedics in an emergency.
- 9. Keep lists of medications, allergies and personal information in your wallet or purse: If you have a specific condition, absolutely wear a medical ID bracelet. This information can be invaluable to emergency medical personnel when they come to your home, especially if you're unconscious or unable to communicate. You can also provide this information to "One Call Alert" who can store it securely and provide it to paramedics in an emergency.
- 10. Take your medical alert system on the road: Your medical alert system is portable. When you travel, take your system with you so you stay protected and have peace of mind. Make sure to notify your medical alert provider so they can update your location information.

ACSA GALA NIGHT AT THE CROWN JUNE 2017.

On Friday the 9th of June some of the Staff and Board Members attended the big night for not-for-profit Organisations, which is held once a year to celebrate the good work done in this section.

We nominated prior to the event, one of our Support Workers in the category: "Employee of the year".

Audrey was announced to be in the finals and we all wished her good luck to win in her category.

The reason we nominated her is her commitment to the Organisation and to her clients. Audrey has worked for CURA since January 2013. She is reliable and she always helps out when we are short-staffed.

Audrey.

She won the heat from many consumers and gets along with her co-workers. Her pleasant attitude gave her the ability to work with anybody.

She is a mother of 4 children and also studies at the University for her Masters in Human Rights. Audrey is always up for new things.

Unfortunately she did not take the big win home, but being in the finals with so many people is already a big achievement.

We all had a great night.

Seeking CURA-In-Home Care Board Members.

Have you ever considered becoming a Member of a Board of Management?
Are you passionate about supporting the elderly to live in their own home for as long as possible?

CURA In-Home Care is encouraging applications from the public and from Members to join our Board. The Board plays an important role, being responsible for governing, overseeing the affairs of and making strategic decisions for the organization and on behalf of its Members.

If you feel you have time, knowledge and expertise to offer to our organization, together with a strong desire to help improve the quality of lives of elderly persons living in Perth, then please contact our Chairperson: Henri Koldenhoven on 0408 740 680 for more details.

CURA is now recruiting Volunteers for our Community Visitor Scheme.

Our volunteers visit elderly people, either in their own homes, or in residential aged care. They bring friendship and happiness to the people they visit and they receive the same in return.

When you are a CVS Volunteer, you receive an orientation, access to an online training program, three in-house training sessions per year and reimbursement for travel expenses.

If you are looking for a meaningful opportunity to volunteer an hour every fortnight, please phone us on 9382 1983 or email us at: cvcs@cura-inhomecare.org.au.

We would love to hear from you.

Annegret, CVS Coordinator.

Sunday Drive results

July Sunday Klaverjas Drive Results.

Our usual Sunday Card (Klaverjas) Drive was held once again, this time on the 2nd of July.

There was a reasonable turn out, as we had 6 playing tables, which means 24 active players, as well as some non-players.

After 2 games were completed, about 12.30, our Lunch was ready, once again prepared by Mike and this time it was not as good as the last Lunch he served up. It looked as if he ran out of sandwich toppings, as there was quite a disparity between individual platters served.

We also tried out a dripolator coffee machine, which makes 12 cups at a time. It is nice to have real coffee, so we will approach Neerlandia to see if we are allowed to buy a machine, which we can also use on Thursday evenings.

We heard that Ann Verhoogt is in hospital, we wish her all the best and a speedy recovery.

After a fierce competition, there were two players, Joost and Piet with scores well above the rest.

The third placegetter Con just managed to beat his wife's score by a very small margin.

The results were:

1st Prize: Joost den Haan 7232 points
2nd Prize: Piet Segers 7177 points
3rd Prize: Con van der Putten 6892 points

Gerry.

The winners (l.t.r.)
Con van der Putten, 3rd Prize;
Joost den Haan, 1st Prize;
Piet Segers, 2nd Prize.

August Sunday Klaverjas Drive Results.

We also held a Klaverjas Drive on Sunday the 6th of August. Once again we had 6 playing tables and everyone had a good time.

We have purchased (courtesy of Neerlandia) the Coffee Dripolator, which makes 12 cups at the time. We also got some thermos jugs, which we fill up, while we make a second batch of real coffee. So we have a continuous supply of Coffee ready very quickly, which went down well with the Members.

Lunch prepared by Mike was fairly good this time, no complaints. I think now that he knows our wishes, everything will be OK.

The competition, was an one-horse race.

Bill Spanbroek scored an unbelievable, impressive 8363 points. This is without a doubt a Sunday Drive record, well done Bill!!

The overall results were:

1st Prize: Bill Spanbroek 8363 points
2nd Prize: John v d Wielen 7091 points
3rd Prize: Joost de Haan 6946 points

Congratulation to the winners. To those that did not win a prize, better luck next time.

Our next Sunday drive will be held on the 10th of September (Father's Day is on the 3rd)

I will be flying to Amsterdam that day, but will think of you all.

Gerry.

The winners (l.t.r.)
Bill Spanbroek, 1st Prize;
John van der Wielen, 2nd Prize;
Joost de Haan, 3rd Prize.

B I N G O B U L L E T I N.

From your friendly Bingo Organiser.

THE BINGO PROMOTION PLAN has come to an end. It has been a great time to have the additional funds to create excitement with increased prizes and it has brought more players to the Game of Bingo. We must build on that with increased attendances. Over the last 6 gaming sessions, 22 players have benefited from that.

As mentioned before, when there are at least 15 players attending, ONE player plays for free and on the 28/6, 12/7 and 26/7, three players, Ida Jutte, Dirk Heistek and Dora van der List, were the lucky winners.

Also the Jackpot has been increasing and at the last game the basic Jackpot stood at $95 + $11 for the game of the day, so it stood at a WHOPPING $106.

IT DID NOT GO OFF, so you could be the lucky one, next time!!!

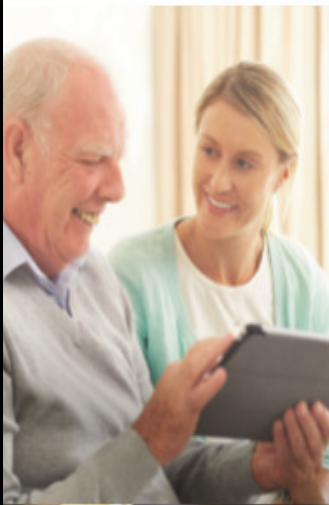

Remember, with 16 or more players attending, another $10 is added to the Jackpot, so it will soon be reaching the $150 MARK.

DO YOU REALLY WANT TO MISS OUT BY NOT BEING THERE???

Join in the fun like the others do.

Now you have a real choice with in-home care

Many people love the security and familiarity of living in their own home. Now the Federal Government allows you to choose the in-home care support service so you can continue to live an independent and active life.

As an accredited provider, we have nearly 30 years experience in providing an extensive range of in-home services for the elderly. We'll work with you – and your family – to see which of our services will be most beneficial to your circumstances.

You might need help with activities such as:

- shopping
- transport
- medical appointments
- cleaning
- personal care
- assistance with meal preparation
- or just having a chat with someone over a cuppa

Our clients come from many different ethnic backgrounds and a diverse variety of lifestyles – we provide culturally specific services and treat them all with the same degree of respect and dignity.

The first step to getting CURA's individual in-home care is to call and have a chat with a member of our Care Team.

If you are not eligible for Government funding, we can still assist you in planning for private services, no matter what your age.

Launch of the Electronics & Software Club

Launch of the Electronics and Software Club.

On Sunday July 16th we had a good launch attended by enthusiastic participants of many different ages.

Fewer people attended than was anticipated, but this also gave us the opportunity to have things more under control.

We were all surprised that the cool flexible silicon keyboards actually were also light-emitting.

All the participants were able to assemble the mini-computers without any problems and they are up and running. However, the 3D printer needs more work, as it is a more complex project.

FROM THE MOUTHS OF BABES.

A delightful little boy was waiting for his mother outside the ladies room of a gas station.

As he stood there he was approached by a man who asked: "Sonny, can you tell me where the Post Office is?"

The little boy replied: "Sure! Just go straight down this street two blocks and turn to your right. It's on the left."

The man kindly thanked the boy and then complimented him on how bright he was. He then said: "I'm the new pastor in town. If you and your mommy would come to church on Sunday, I'll show you how to go to Heaven." The little boy chuckled: "You're kiddin' me, right? You can't even find the Post Office!"

The wedding

A father texts his son:

"My Dear Son, today is a day you will treasure for all the days of your life.

My best love and good wishes.

Your Father."

His Son texts back: "Thanks Dad. But the wedding isn't actually until tomorrow!"

His Father replies: "I know."

At dawn the telephone rings:

"Hello, Señor Bob? This is Ernesto, the caretaker at your country house."

"Ah yes, Ernesto. What can I do for you? Is there a problem?"

"Um, I am just calling to advise you, Señor Bob, that your parrot, he is dead".

"My parrot? Dead? The one that won the International competition?"

"Si, Señor, that's the one."

"Damn! That's a pity! I spent a small fortune on that bird. What did he die from?"

"From eating the rotten meat, Señor Bob."

"Rotten meat? Who the hell fed him rotten meat?"

"Nobody, Señor. He ate the meat of the dead horse."

"Dead horse? What dead horse?"

"The thoroughbred, Señor Bob."

"My prize thoroughbred is dead?"

"Yes, Señor Bob, he died from all that work pulling the water cart."

"Are you insane? What water cart?"

"The one we used to put out the fire, Señor."

"Good Lord! What fire are you talking about, man?"

"The one at your house, Señor! A candle fell and the curtains caught on fire."

"What the hell? Are you saying that my mansion is destroyed because of a candle?!"

"Yes, Señor Bob."

"But there's electricity at the house! What was the candle for?"

"For the funeral, Señor Bob."

"WHAT FUNERAL??!!!"

"Your wife's, Señor Bob. She showed up very late one night and I thought she was a thief, so I hit her with your new Ping G15 204g titanium head golf club with the TFC 149D graphite shaft."

The Municipality of Rheden in Gelderland

Flag and Coat of Arms of Rheden.

Rheden is a Municipality in the Province of Gelderland, which lies in the East-Central area of the Netherlands. Rheden is situated between the River "IJssel" on the South side and the Veluwe Hills and National Park on the North side.

Rheden consists of the villages of Velp, Rheden, De Steeg, Ellecom, Dieren, Spankeren and Laag Soeren. It had 43,950 inhabitants in 2007.

History:

People have inhabited the Veluwe area since the year 0, but the first official records of villages in the area dates back to the 9th Century, namely the villages of Velp and Dieren. Alongside the Veluwe Hills, many Estates were established stretching from Arnhem to Dieren. The owners of these Estates offered employment opportunities for the villagers. A few Castles were also built, such as Castle "Middachten" in de Steeg (14th century),

Castle Biljoen.

Castle "Biljoen" in Velp (16th century) and the Mansion "Rhederoord" (18th century). These Castles also provided a safe haven for the locals during times of war. The very first mention of a Castle on this location dates back to 1190.

Middachten Castle.

Early in the 14th century, the ownership of the "Middachten Castle" passed to Reinald, Count of Gelre. The Castle would remain with this family until 1625. However during this time the Castle was partially destroyed and rebuilt again on several occasions.

When the Castle was rebuilt in 1698, a new Garden was also built, based on the Gardens in Versailles. In the late 18th century, British-style Gardens became fashionable and the Gardens were redone in this British-style. But at a later date this was reversed once again! Also in the locality are several medieval Churches and the 12th-century Gelderse Tower.

Tourism in the National Park Veluwezoom.

Tourism is the most important source of employment and income of the Municipality. The main reason for this is that most of Rheden lies within the Veluwezoom National Park.

The Veluwezoom National Park.

The Municipality of Rheden in Gelderland

Purple landscape in the Veluwe National Park just outside Rheden.

All year through, organized tours are available such as: Hiking tours, Walking tours and Cycling tours. Even tours by boat or other means of transport such as horses are available.

During the 19th century, many retired people from everywhere, decided to come and live in Rheden and within 100 years the population of the Municipality of Rheden went from 5000 to 100,000.

The Gelderen Tower (Gelderse Toren) was originally built in 1235 alongside the river IJssel as a heavily reinforced defence tower. In 1868 the top part of the tower was demolished and rebuilt in a more modern architectural style.

The grounds are pretty, and there is a water moat around the building. The approach is via an avenue lined with old Oak Trees, very picturesque. It is a State Monument.
